

Four facts about MS

- It is estimated that around 150,000 people in the UK have multiple sclerosis
- Every week 135 more people are diagnosed with MS in the UK
- More women than men are diagnosed with multiple sclerosis
- Everyone's MS is different and no two people will have the same range or severity of symptoms

For more information visit mstrust.org.uk